Punderdome: A Card Game For Pun Lovers

Synopsis

From the daughter-father duo that created Brooklyn's beloved live pun competition comes Punderdome, the "Punderful card game [that] will replace Cards Against Humanity at your next party" (Mashable.com). One part game, one part conversation starter, you don't need to be a pun master to master Punderdome: the goal is to make bad jokes and have fun along the way. A player (the prompter for that round) draws two prompt cards from the deck, and then reads the prompts to the rest of the group, who have 90 seconds to create a single, groan-worthy pun that combines the two prompts. When time is up, pun makers share their puns with the prompter, who awards the prompt cards to the player whose pun he or she likes best. The winner then draws the next pair of prompt cards and the process repeats. Players win by obtaining 10 pairs of cards. Every Game Set Comes With: 200 double-sided cards (100 White and 100 Green) 2 Mystery Envelopes with fill-in prize slips 2 80-page pads for drafting puns 1 instruction card and 1 pun example card A stu-PUN-dous time for 3 or more players

Customer Reviews

Punderdome is a super fun and challenging game that will leave all its players in stitches! Plus it comes in this little box that's easy to take anywhere with lots of fun colors, drawings and info on it. Definitely visually appealing. What's really cool is that this game started as a monthly pun competition called Punderdome 3000, in Brooklyn by Fred and Jo Firestone, a father and daughter team, since 2011. Then in 2015 it was made into a game you can now play in your own home or wherever. The box is pretty small so it's easy to pack along in your bag or purse too. There is a two-sided, folded pamphlet included in the box that has directions and other info on it. But basically, the 1st person, usually the host, is the 1st pun prompter and draws 2 cards (a White Topic card and a Green Situation card) and asks one of the "Quick Pun" questions on the back of the cards. This is a warm up question. Then, they read the words on the green and white sides of the cards and the other players have 90 seconds to create a pun. If a person makes up a pun the fastest, they win an extra 30 seconds for the next round. After you think of your pun and write it down within the 90 seconds, hand it to the person who read the question. They choose the best Pun and the winner gets the cards used in that round. Then the winner becomes the Pun Promoter and the next round begins. It sounds easy right? Wrong. It is actually pretty challenging because 90 seconds is NOT A lot of time. LOL. But it is fun. Also, there is 2 mystery envelopes, where the 1st prompter, usually the host, writes down 2 different prizes on pieces of paper and puts in the envelopes. These go in the center of the playing area the whole game.
